

IFAM International Folk Art Market

2018 International Folk Art Market Artist Supply Drop-Off Procedure

In order to facilitate the arrival of artist supplies to the International Folk Art Market and the resupply of these goods, the Artist Team has designated certain procedures to ensure that these actions take place in a timely, organized fashion as well as to ensure the safety of the goods involved. Below is a details schedule of when Artists can unload artwork from private vehicles at the Market.

Thursday July 12th, 2018

Between 15:00 and 17:00, Artists may drop-off artwork and other goods on-site to their booths by pre-authorization only. Please contact Sachiko Umi at sachiko@folkartmarket.org to arrange authorization. Security will arrive on-site at 17:00 and will remain on-hand for the duration of the Market. Artists are requested to not leave their goods unattended until Security has arrived on-site.

Friday July 13th, 2018

Between 07:00 and 15:00, Artists may drop-off artwork and other goods at the Market entrance for their booths. Artists or entourage members with private vehicles wishing to drop-off artwork and other goods during this time must contact Sachiko Umi at sachiko@folkartmarket.org prior to their arrival the Market to obtain a permit.

Saturday July 14th, 2018

Up until 7:00am, Artists may drop-off artwork and other goods at the Market entrance for their booths. Artists or entourage members with private vehicles wishing to drop-off artwork and other goods during this time must contact Sachiko Umi at sachiko@folkartmarket.org prior to their arrival the Market to obtain a permit.

Sunday July 15th, 2018

Up until 08:30 am, Artists may drop-off artwork and other goods at the Market entrance for their booths. Artists or entourage members with private vehicles wishing to drop-off artwork and other goods during this time must contact Sachiko Umi at sachiko@folkartmarket.org prior to their arrival the Market to obtain a permit. Beginning at 17:30, unpermitted vehicles will be allowed on-site to pick-up artwork from booths.

The re-supply of artwork in Artist booths may only take place from the MIAC or MOIFA lots during the Market and MUST obtain a Load/Unload Permit from either Sachiko Umi with the Artist Team at sachiko@folkartmarket.org or through the Parking Team at parking@folkartmarket.org.